

September 27, 2025: On Elon Musk and Steven Bannon meetings with Jeffrey Epstein

MAGA influencers have been in the company of the very same person that they are alleging that they oppose. This is the type of Republican hypocrisy that drove me away from their party during the years post-9/11 as they waged war on the world.

Now, under the Donald Trump II administration we see the exact same pattern of abusive war-lords raging against the world. Here is what they are up to when they are not encouraging the deaths of innocent people.
